

OUR VALUES

Music is a matter of taste.
Sound is not.

[re:vox]
»The reproduced voice«

»Reproducing the human voice and music in all their facets and at will is the challenge that resides in the name Revox.«

Willi Studer, Revox founder

The name itself sets the standards for unparalleled sound quality: Revox – freely translated, it means »the reproduced voice«.

Revox is one of those rare brands that preserve the myth of the past, make their mark in the present and look ahead to the future.

Authenticity, our values and our service commitment are at the heart of everything we do.

Our mission

»We inspire our audiophile customers with STUDIO SOUND QUALITY products and our outstanding service«.

Revox Company Video

HISTORY

Revox has built premium audio products in outstanding quality and technical precision for over 75 years. The legend and fascination of a premium brand: As a richly traditional Swiss company, Revox | Studer is a pioneer in the audio world and was established by Willi Studer in 1948. He adhered strictly to the maxim that »The second best solution is out of the question if you love perfection.« and rigorously developed all components in his own production facilities.

These premium products have fascinated audiophiles around the world from day one due to their love of unbeatable sound quality, innovative technology, manufacturing quality and competent service.

Each Revox product is a masterpiece in its own right.

STUDIO SOUND QUALITY

With Revox, music is heard exactly as it was recorded in the studio by the artistes – in true studio sound quality. The sound reproduction is natural, harmonious, and free of any gimmicks, finely-tuned but still voluminous.

Famous recording studios all over the world work with Revox | Studer products, as do many as radio and TV stations. For over seven decades, our products have set global standards for studio recordings by the most well-known artistes in all music genres. From A for Abba and B for The Beatles to Z for Zappa: Revox has always maintained close ties to music industry.

»True studio sound quality is what we aspire to – as immediate, powerful and vibrant as the original studio recording. No more, but certainly no less.« Jürgen Lindemann, Head of Development at Revox.

COOPERATION: YELLO & REVOX

In a historic merger of two icons of music and audio technology, Yello and Revox are launching the B77 MKII Yello Edition Tape Machine - a synergy of technological milestone and musical masterpiece.

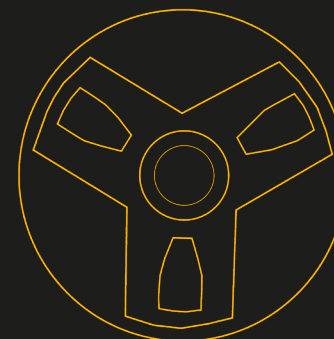

In this masterful collaboration with Yello, Revox has exquisitely restored ten of these legendary machines, renewing, refining and customizing components.

Revox X Yello Video

This exclusive collaboration between Yello and Revox is more than just a combination of brand and machine. It is a celebration of the musical and technological achievements that both have made in their respective fields. It represents an era when artists and engineers alike worked to push the boundaries of what was possible.
