REVOX DEEP PURPLE - LIMITED EDITION

DEEP PURPLE COLLABORATES WITH REVOX

The collaboration was established to experience Deep Purple's music in the same exceptional quality as it was originally recorded by the musicians in the studio, using Revox's high-quality audio products which deliver authentic studio sound quality at home.

This partnership combines Revox's outstanding audio expertise with the musical excellence of Deep Purple, one of the most significant, and influential bands in music history.

This strictly limited special edition exclusively includes 25 Revox B77 Tape Recorders and 50 Revox T77 Turntables, each combined with Deep Purple's brand-new album SPLAT! in the finest analog sound quality on tape or record, as well as 200 Revox A200 wireless speakers.

The design of the limited-edition products, including the accompanying special audio reels, harmonizes perfectly with the outstanding visual design of the forthcoming album SPLAT! (out July 3rd, 2026).

All products have been specially designed by Revox and Deep Purple and signed by the musicians - Ian Gillan, Roger Glover, Ian Paice, Don Airey, Simon McBride.
